TO FIX TAX LEVY TONIGHT

START WAR ON MOTORIST VIOLATING REGULATIONS.

PETITION FOR WALNUT

Council Will Take Preliminary Action For Street Tonight—Routine Business at Meeting.

The city council will be in special session tonight for the purpose of fixing the city tax levy for the 1925 taxes. Mayor W. O. Garrett said this morning that as he has not fully considered the proposition he could not say as to whether there would be any change in the levy this year from last. The total levy that was made last year was 6.1 mills, which was a reduction from the levy of the year before by 2.1 mills.

The council met last night in regular monthly session and went through the routine business of hearing the monthly reports and allowing bills.

The enforcing of the traffic regulations in the city has become serious and has been considered seriously by the city council on many occasions. The manner in which some motorists have been operating vehicles on the city streets has been in such violation of the traffic laws that many accidents are reported and lives endangered.

The council is today again publishing a notice to motorists and giving some of the traffic rules. At the council meeting last night the city police officers were given orders to enforce the rules to the limit and have orders to make arrests for any violations of the ordinances. Three operators of vehicles appeared this morning before Mayor W. O. Garrett on complaints of operating vehicles after sundown with only one light and for passing vehicles at intersections.

The violations which are most frequent and which are dangerous, the Mayor explained this morning, are cutting corners, turning on street otherwise than at an intersection and the most dangerous of all is passing around another car at an intersection.

After the publication of the traffic rules today the officers are under strict orders to make arrests for any such violations.

The council will undoubtedly take preliminary action at the meeting tonight for paving on Walnut street between Lincoln and Ninth streets on Walnut street. Yesterday a petition was filed with the city clerk, Mrs. Merle Cooper Smith, with the names of twenty-six resident property owners requesting the council to order Walnut street paved for seventeen blocks between Lincoln and Ninth streets with seven inch re-inforced concrete, twenty-feet from curb to curb.

Mayor Garrett said this morning that it appeared to the council that a sufficient majority of property owners on this street favored paving and the commissioners feel justified in starting proceedings for paving of this portion of Walnut street.

Mayor Garrett in his report of the city finances for the previous month, reported a total balance of $66,383.52 in the city treasury from which the bills for May are to be deducted. The amounts in each fund:

Water department, $27,602.55, street, $3,644.45; library, $3,519.14; general $16,413.15; first water bond principal, $4,249.62; first water bond interest, $3,000.57; street workers' guarantee, $251; street lighting, $5,380.96; second water bond principal, $618.57; second water bond interest, $1692.77; petty cash, $10.74.

According to the delinquent tax report, prior to the 1924 tax, $101.53 was collected the last month.

The collector's monthly report showed a total of $32.15 collected.

Miss Grace Langan, librarian, gave the following report for the Maryville Public Library for the month of May:

Loan Department—Juvenile, 518 books, general books, 1,111; a total of 1,233; magazines lent, 86; making a total of 1,837 books and magazines lent during the month, or an average of 73 per day. Forty-eight readers' cards were issued. There were 1,724 readers who used the reading rooms during the month, an average of fifty-seven a day. Collections for the month were $21.20.

Claud Stults, who has charge of the city scales and wash racks, reports $7.35 from the scales and $2.75 from the wash racks.

There were seven cases in police court before Judge Warren L. Johnson. Of this number two were for drunkenness and three for speeding. Fines totaled $12; and costs $24.15.

ROAD WORK TO BE LET SOON

SURVEY ON PICKERING HIGHWAY IS NOW COMPLETED

TO WIDEN CORNERS

State Highway Commission May Contract Work On Or Before June 25—Right-of-way Guaranteed

The contract for the hard surfacing of the state road to Pickering will be let on or before June 25, according to word received here this morning by the county court. The survey of the road selected has been made.

The road chosen will start from the Catterson or Eckert corner, two miles north of Maryville, then one mile east to the Union school house, then about four miles north to a point just south of Pickering or to what is known as the cottonwood tree. The road from Maryville to the Catterson or Eckert corner is now being hard surfaced with a concrete roadway and this work will be completed within a short time.

The Eckert corner as well as the corner near the Union school house will be widened and made like the Catterson, corner, two miles north of Maryville.

The county court has guaranteed to the State Highway department the right-of-way or such portion of it on this road as the Highway Department is unable to procure by deeds. They will prosecute to final judgment any necessary condemnation proceedings for this right-of-way.

Will Attend State Meeting.

E. G. Orear and Raymond Murrin will leave tomorrow for Springfield, Mo., where they will attend the state meeting of the United Commercial Travelers as delegates from the local council.

1,127 STUDENTS ARE ENROLLED

RECORD FOR SECOND DAY IS MADE AT COLLEGE.

NEW SYSTEM IS AID

More Rapid Work In Registrar's Office This Year On Account of Added Help and Equipment.

Eleven hundred and twenty-seven students had enrolled for the summer term at the State Teachers College up to 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

At the close of the second day last year, 948 students had enrolled at the College.

This is the record second day's enrollment in the history of the school here.

The increase in enrollment for the first two days this year over the same period last year is due mostly to a more rapid system in handling registration in the registrar's office, it was said at the College today. Students have paid the incidental fee to the College treasurer as in the past. The enrollment card is then taken to the registrar's office where these cards are checked and left. An additional assistant in this office enters the student's name upon the record later instead of the student waiting for this to be done as in the past. This system has made for a more rapid handling of enrollment after the student has paid his incidental fee to the treasurer.

THERMOMETER CLIMES TO NEW HIGH RECORDS FOR JUNE.

MICHIGAN SWELTERS

Two Cases of Damage Locally—Mercury Drops 4 Degrees Within Ten Hours Last Night.

Chicago, June 2—Eleven dead and a score injured, several probably fatally, was the toll left in the Midwest in the wake of a gradually diminishing heat wave which yesterday sent thermometers throughout the district climbing to new high marks for June 1.

The heat and severe electrical and wind storms, which brought some measure of relief, claimed four lives in Chicago, three in Cleveland, two in Des Moines, and two near Wayland, Mo.

Detroit, Mich., June 2—Michigan sweltered today under a stupor of heat that was expected to mount as high as 105 degrees in some sections. Flint, which experienced 105 degrees yesterday, was preparing to stand a still higher temperature today.

The mercury fell four degrees within ten hours last night, according to J. R. Brink's official thermometer. The mercury registered 64 degrees last night and the minimum during the night was 60. The total rainfall amounted to .12 of an inch, Mr. Brink said.

Only two cases of damage have been reported to Hal Hooker of the Nodaway County Mutual Insurance Co. The lightning struck a calf on the Albert Neidel farm northwest of Maryville. The wind caused some damage to the barn and porch at the Henry Wells farm.

S. Hann, attorney representing C. V. Stevens, alleged "master mind" in the purported scheme. Hann issued a statement declaring if the men were brought to trial he would "laugh the police department out of court."

Mrs. A. L. Meeker and daughter, Allene, of St. Joseph returned home yesterday after a week's visit at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Heber Michaelson. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Meeker's nephew, Virgil Devine of Council Bluffs, for a visit.

After the President's refusal to go through with it, after a conference with Secretary of Navy Wilbur, it was decided to take the picture at long range so it would be difficult to distinguish individuals.

BREWERY CO. FINED $10,000

DEFERENCE OF SENTENCE GIVEN PRATHER.

PROTECTION COST HIGH

Vice-President Of St. Louis Company Is Still To Stand Trial—No Appeal Expected.

St. Louis, June 2.—The Griesedieck Brewing Co., of St. Louis was fined $10,000 today and Charles C. Prather, former state food and drug commissioner, was granted a deference of sentence in federal court in connection with alleged beer protection in which Heber Nations, former state labor commissioner, was fined and sentenced to imprisonment yesterday.

Prather, who entered a plea of guilty and testified against Nations as a member of an alleged protection ring, will not be sentenced until the September term of court, under Federal Judge Faris' decision.

Nations, an ardent supporter of the Anti-Saloon League, was fined $3,333 and sentenced to eighteen months. He is at liberty on an appeal bond of $7,000.

The Griesedieck Brewery is not expected to appeal the fine inasmuch as Raymond Griesedieck, vice-president, testified against Nations in the recent trial. Griesedieck, who, the testimony tended to show, paid $13,000 for the alleged protection, himself has yet to stand trial as the fine today was assessed against the corporation.

Nations had protested that his role in the conspiracy was only to trap the brewery in behalf of his brother, Gus Nations, dry squad leader.

THOMAS RILEY MARSHALL.

The death of former Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall yesterday shocked the nation with its tragic suddenness.

Death found him sitting up in bed, reading the Bible. And perhaps no situation would more fittingly illustrate the private life of a man held in universal esteem during all the years of a long and busy life.

His public was as clean and wholesome as his private life. Not even the whisper of a suspicion, to say nothing of any direct charges, was ever uttered in connection with either.

There was perhaps no more stalwart and uncompromising Democrat in the United States than Thomas Riley Marshall. But political affiliations did not bind the circle of his friends. His very distinctive personality possessed attributes which made political appeals a mere coincidence.

Many of his warmest personal friends were men with whom he crossed swords in the political arena. They loved him for qualities which were inherent in a lovable character. His intellectual brilliancy inspired respect and few vice presidents in recent years did more to raise that office out of the doldrums in which it has floundered for so long.

His wit was never barbed with venom or meanness, but it flashed forth on many occasions and brightened, without lowering, the dignity of the senate.

Mr. Marshall was for many years prominent in the Masonry of Indiana and was a thirty-third degree Mason of the Scottish Rite for the northern jurisdiction of the United States. The craft throughout the country will mourn an illustrious brother, while the nation as a whole will deplore the passing of an illustrious American.

RISKS OF POLAR FLYERS.

Twenty-eight years ago Solomon August Andree, a Dane, set forth with two companions in the basket of a balloon to drift to the North Pole. The men and their balloon were swallowed up in the Arctic wastes. No trace of them after the first of their voyage from Spitzbergen ever has been found.

A carrier piegon brought down on board a ship some time later bore a message telling of progress made that first day. A few drifting buoys Andree had taken as a possible means of communication with the world he had left were found in the sea, but all had been tossed out within 24 hours of the airship's taking off.

Andree's attempt was the most foolhardy of all that have been made by men to reach the Pole. So it is rated, but in these days of anxiety as to the fate of Amundsen and his intrepid companions it may be questioned if the earlier explorer took graver risks than those who flew away in two airplanes scarcely more than a week ago.

The difference between Andree and Amundsen is that the former trusted wholly in the elements to carry him to his goal and return him to civilization, while the latter put his faith in a relatively frail mechanical contrivance. But slight disarrangement of his machine, and Amundsen would be worse off than Andree was so long as he could keep in the air. Yet Amundsen had the advantage of a party divided between two machines. If one plane were forced down the other might get through or return to the starting point for assistance for the unfortunates.

The voyagers had made preparations for maintaining themselves in case of disaster until rescued or until they could reach an outpost of civilization by toilsome trudging over the ice and snow. However, there is nothing certain to be counted on in the bleak and desolate into which they ventured.

Why Bryan Wouldn't Let Teachers Teach What They Pleased.

Some say, "Let the teacher be supreme and teach anything that seems best to him."

The teacher is an employee. Employees take directions from their employers.

No teacher would be permitted to teach the students that a monarchy is the only good government and kings the only good executives. No teacher would be permitted to slander presidents and libel our form of government.

The same logic would suggest that a teacher receiving pay in pollars on a teacher receiving pay in dollars on should not be permitted to teach in the classroom that there is no God.—William Jennings Bryan on the teaching of the theory of evolution.

Charlie Ross?

DANIEL PETERS

Daniel Peters, a farmer of Longstown, Pa., is convinced, he has told authorities, that he is Charles Brewster Ross, whose mysterious kidnaping in Philadelphia, Pa., in 1874 proved to be one of the most sensational crimes of history. Interest in the kidnaping is still alive, after fifty years, throughout the world. Peters bases his claim upon the deathbed confession to him of the woman he had believed was his mother.

CHAFF FROM THE GRIST AT THE CAPITOL.

Washington, June 2.—(United Press)—Attorney General Sargent has attempted to what most people consider impossible—stop reports and rumors from emanating from the Department of Justice.

Since assuming office, Sargent has been besieged with queries from newspaper correspondents on the significance of visits here of various U. S. Attorneys and other officials of the Department. With the queries come reports that certain officials called in "are to be asked to resign."

Showing resentment inferences being drawn when Justice officials are so summoned from the field, Sargent appealed to newspapermen to refrain from discussing their visits "until the Department is ready to make an announcement."

"United States Attorneys," said Sargent, "come to Washington frequently, sometimes by request, at other times, voluntarily, in order that the government's business may be discussed at close range. This is a very satisfactory procedure.

"I would like you gentlemen NOT to feel that there is always something wrong; usually things are right and the wrong condition is only, occasional.

"Every time a United States Attorney visits Washington it should NOT in fairness to that official, be inferred that he has been summoned for discipline. A short time ago a United States Attorney from one of the Southwestern States came to Washington to discuss business in his district. A report preceded him, apparently, to the effect that his resignation had been demanded and so forth. This was unfair."

When Department officials in various States come to Washington, newspapers in that State wire their representatives and press services here to closely watch that official's visit. Accompanying the wire usually comes the report that this official is to resign or be asked to relinquish his post.

During his tenure in office, Sargent said he planned to follow the policy of calling in various officials for conference. He believes he can become better acquainted with the Department's work and effect more efficient administration by "personal contact."

Coincident with his appeal to newspapermen to discontinue forecasting the outcome of visit here of various Department officials, Sargent ordered all Department heads to submit him weekly reports on the progress of pending business.

Sin in the Country.

From E. W. Howes' Monthly.

Gout is caused by heavy liquor drinking; rheumatism by heavy eating of rich food. There isn't much difference between gout and rheumatism . . . I visited lately in a small town, and was given an enormous dinner. It damaged me more than would a drink in a big town. . . . Sin in a small town runs more to eating than to drinking; country town saints have rheumatism as generally as big-town sinners have gout.

Governors "Go Along" on Defense Day Plan

But Many State Executives Believe Better Date Could Be Named Than July 4.

New York, June 2.—While not militantly enthusiastic over the idea, most of the governors of the 48 states are willing to co-operate with President Coolidge and the war department in the suggested plan to make July 4 annual "defense day" from a national standpoint. This was disclosed in a poll of gubernatorial sentiment.

Many of the governors feel that a day should be set apart each year on which the nation should take stock of its defense situation, when state troops should be mobilized for inspection and survey, and the thoughts of the people generally devoted to the preparedness that may never be necessary but which must always be observed.

But not all of them believe this day should be Armistice day, as originally proposed by the general staff, nor do they wholeheartedly approve of President Coolidge's alternative suggestion of July 4. Not a few of the state executives, while declaring they would "go along" with the federal government if July 4 is selected, expressed the view that "a better day could be selected" than either Armistice day or July 4.

Welcome Stranger.

A distinguished westerner, subject to severe attacks of indigestion, was traveling with his wife. Late one night in a Pullman, he was seized with an attack. His wife slipped on a kimono and hurried to the wash-room to prepare a mustard plaster. She rushed back, hastily threw aside the curtains, opened his pajamas and applied the plaster securely before she discovered it wasn't her husband but a strange man. She fled horrified to the right berth and told her husband, who went into such fits of laughter that his indigestion was cured. If they tried to take off the plaster they would awaken the stranger. To avoid a difficult explanation they decided just to leave it on.

At 6:00 a. m., there was a terrific roar from the stranger's berth. "Porter," he howled, "who the H—ll put a porcupine in my bed!"—From Everybody's Magazine for June.

Undertaker Fails to Escape Jury Duty

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 2.—The needs of the living are paramount to those of the dead.

Despite the plea of George Baker, local embalmer, that he was so busy in his own line he could not spare time for jury service, Judge Cohen, in Common Pleas Court, refused to excuse him.

"Service on juries is not an arbitrary matter, but a duty," the judge said.

Commons to Curtail Ardent Orators

London, June 2.—All speeches in the House of Commons may be limited to ten minutes each if the efforts of a few members of the House, who have inaugurated a "ten-minute speech" movement, are successful.

The Speaker has given his approval to the movement, hopeful that some of the notoriously long-winded members may be induced to sign the self-denying ordinance.

Police Bus Idle; Awaits Driver

Jeffersonville, Ind., June 2.—Although the city boasts of a brand-new motorized patrol wagon it remains idle while the policemen march with their prisoners afoot to the station.

All because of an edict of John E. Cole, chief of police.

"Walk until you learn to drive," he ordered.

And the five cops on the force walk.

"I'm the only one on the force who can drive the car, and I'm going to walk, too, until I teach my men how to drive," Cole said.

Literally.

"They say the prisoner was very much interested in the jury's verdict."

"Yes, he actually hung on their words."

BOTH PARTIES COMBAT KLAN

COLORADO FACTIONS UNITE IN STATE FIGHT.

HOLD ON GOVERNMENT

Organization Termed "Constitutionalists" Is To Start Warfare On Policies of "Invisible Empire."

Denver, June 2.—Open political warfare loomed today in Colorado between the Ku Klux Klan and the forces bitterly opposed to the "Invisible Empire's" reputed control of the State government—as well as the election to minor and major political offices of candidates openly in sympathy with the klan.

With the avowed purpose of opposing the klan and combating the political activities of the "Invisible Empire," the "Constitutionalists," a bipartisan organization, headed by prominent Colorado political leaders, has been launched here with a program that calls for local chapters being formed in every county in the State and the holding of a State convention later in the Summer.

At the first meeting of th "Constitutionalists" in Denver Horace N. Hawkins, local attorney, and for many years active as a Democratic leader was chosen president.

Vice-presidents selected were Charles S. Thomas, former Democratic Governor of the State and former United States Senator; George H. Shaw, of Fort Collins, former chairman of the Republican State central committee; Colonel Philip Van Cise, former Republican District Attorney of Denver, who gained widespread prominence in his arrest and prosecution of the famous "million dollar bunko ring" here, and William E. Hutton, a Republican Denver attorney.

Former Governor O. H. Shoup, Republican, millionaire Colorado Springs oil man, was selected as treasurer of the newly formed Constitutionalists, and Frank Medina, Denver Democrat, and former Federal prohibition director of the State, was named as secretary.

Denounce Klan.

The general executive committee includes Congressman William N. Vaile, of Denver, Republican; Earl Cooley, former Republican Lieutenant Governor, of Trinidad; Judge Ben B. Lindsey, Democrat, Denver, and many other prominent Republican and Democratic leaders.

Adoption of a declaration of principles scathingly denouncing the Ku Klux Klan and announcement that a State anti-klan convention would be held here this Summer featured the initial meeting of the Constitutionalists, the declaration of principles reading, in part, as follows:

"Colorado is confronted with the gravest moral, economic and political issue in its history—survival as a free and independent commonwealth, or reduction to the province of an invisible empire.

"At the present time this State is practically controlled by the Ku Klux Klan. The klan numbers among its oath-bound and order-taking members the junior United States Senator, the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor, the majority of the elected State officials, numerous county and city officials, and a large proportion of the directors of our public schools. It has invaded the ranks of union labor and has disrupted its membership; it is found in churches, lodges, clubs and organizations of all kinds, seeking to select their officials and control their policies; it has strangled business by means of the economic boycott, and it publicly proclaims 'We are not Republicans, we are not Democrats, we are Klansmen.' It is a secret, military, political organization, functioning under the will of one man, and is aiming at complete domination of the political, business and social life of our State and citizens.

No Middle Ground.

"The klan is secret, deceitful, afraid of publicity, intolerant, anonymous, and a breeder of suspicion, hatred and strife. It has divided communities and citizenry into hostile camps and classes. It condemns whole sections of our people to political, social and industrial ostracism because of race, color and religion.

"Faced with the situation, there is but one issue in Colorado, and that is: KLAN, or CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT. There can be no middle ground and the battle must be waged until the klan is driven out of this State never to return.

"To this end the Constitutionalists have been organized to resist this menace and to combat it with every legal weapon available."

Swedish Singers Will Make Tour America

Famous Glee Club From Stockholm Is Preparing to Give Concerts in Twenty-Three Cities in This Country.

Stockholm, June 2.—Before starting for the United States to sing in a series of concerts, the "American Chorus" of the Stockholm Students' Glee Club is now making a preliminary tour of Sweden itself, and wherever it appears it is greeted with as much enthusiasm and entrusted with as many good wishes as though it were a kind of Swedish expeditionary force organized for foreign conquest. It is now twenty years since the University Student Singers of Lund invaded the United States. There are centuries of traditions behind student singing in Sweden, and everyone hopes the Stockholm singers will be worthy successors to those of Upsala and Lund.

This interest in the coming American trip extends from the royal family to the humblest cottage, for there is hardly a person in the entire country who does not have a relative or friend in the United States. The entire tour has been organized under the personal patronage of the Swedish Crown Prince, Gustavus Adolphus, and before leaving Stockholm on their preliminary concert series through the provinces the fifty young singers were received at the Royal Castle by King Gustav and Queen Victoria. The Queen presented them with a Swedish flag to carry to the United States as their banner. Both their majesties entrusted the singers with their sincere personal greetings to the people of the United States.

Open in New York.

Preparations for the trip, which will begin with a concert in New York on June 4, have been under way for over a year. The Glee Club has just celebrated its twentieth anniversary and Dr. Einar Ralf, who will conduct the American tour, has been the leader for the past eight years.

After appearing in New York the Swedish students are scheduled for concerts in the following American cities: Philadelphia, Washington, Chicago, Rock Island, Kansas City, Lindsborg, Ks., and Omaha, Neb.; Sioux City, Sioux Falls, St. Peter, Minneapolis, Duluth, St. Paul, Rockford, Ill.; Detroit, Jamestown, N. Y.; Bridgeport, Conn.; New Haven, Providence, Worcester, Boston, New Britain and New York, where the farewell concert will be given on July 8. In 56 days they are slated to sing at 30 concerts besides traveling. Their repertoire will consist entirely of Northern composers, with a few American popular songs as additions.

Chemical Industry in U. S Has Rapid Growth

American Preparations in Increased Demand Through World—Many Foreign Sources Closed.

Washington, June 2.—Among the industries of the United States showing the greatest development as the result of the closing of foreign sources of supply during the war, is the manufacturing of chemicals and products, according to the Department of Commerce.

"The exports of chemicals and allied products to foreign countries during the first quarter of 1925 attained an aggregate value of $36,034,000 and showed 11 per cent increase over the corresponding period of 1924," Charles C. Concannon, chief of the chemical Division of the department, said.

"This figure was higher than for any single quarter last year. Shipments of naval stores, paints and varnishes, explosives and perfumery and toilet preparations were all larger than during any similar period in 1924."

Dominate Markets.

Throughout last year the foreign market for toilet preparations showed a steady increase, the producers of this country gradually gaining the upper hand over their competitors, chiefly in France. Toilet preparations exported during the year were valued at $7,251,000.

American tooth paste and other dental preparations particularly are in demand and actually dominate several foreign markets in competition with home manufacturers selling for less, the department said.

Lip sticks, eyebrow pencils, hair tonics, facial creams, talcum powders and nearly all other American toilet articles are fast growing in demand in the world markets.

Of the major chemical groups naval stores represented the biggest change, having risen 43 per cent in value from the $4,251,000 export in the first three months of 1924. Naval stores include resin, turpentine and several other products.

Paints in Demand.

The export of pigments, paints and varnishes during the first quarter reached a value of $4,133,000, showing an 8 per cent increase over last year.

Sulphur, one of the commodities in which the United States is one of the leading world factors, improved 33 per cent in quantity and 50 per cent in value, from 93,400 tons, worth $1,443,000, in 1924, to 125,000 tons worth $2,165,000 in the first quarter of 1925.

The export of industrial chemicals in the first quarter totaled $2,470,000, a 1 per cent increase over 1924.

In the explosive group a 37 per cent increase in value was recorded, the total shipment having reached 6,159,000 pounds, valued at $1,315,000. Dynamite accounted for 60 per cent of the total.

Foreign sales of medicinal and pharmaceutical preparations continued on an upward movement, reaching a total of $4,826,000 for the first three months.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hall and family and Clara Inez and Andy Chris Cummins of Parnell, Miss Helen Long of Ravenwood, and Mrs. Cora Hall and Mrs. Opal Holiday of Beverly, Kan., motored to Isidore Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Hall and family.

Letters Like This Prove the Reliability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Turtle Lake, Wisconsin. — "I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness, backache and nervousness. I had these troubles for years and had taken other medicines for them, but I have found no medicine so good as the Vegetable Compound and I recommend it to my friends who have troubles similar to mine. I saw it advertised and thought I would try it and it has helped me in all my troubles." I have had six children and I have taken the Lydia E. Feeders Did Best With Young Cattle

Atchison County Found Cheapest Gain On Yearlings—Tour of County.

A cattle feeders' tour in Atchison County, shared the other day by 125 feeders, demonstrated the fact that the fat 1,105 pound yearlings made their gain for $2.00 per cwt. cheaper than one bunch of 2-year-olds and 60c per cwt. cheaper than three others and were nearer to the weight desired by the packer buyers. This tour also brought out the fact that there is still a small margin of profit in feeding cattle after paying the market price for all grain and roughage used, in addition to maintaining the soil fertility by the use of the manure produced, if the right weight of cattle is fed and every care is taken to cheapen the cost of production.

The tour included five farms visited where complete cost records had been kept on 496 cattle. C. W. Davis, county extension agent, directed the tour and at each stop a discussion of rations fed, the rate of gain and the cost of gain was led by H. M. Garlock and J. W. Burch of the Missouri College of Agriculture. The cattle were appraised on a basis of St. Joseph markets by E. E. Vance of Swift and Company and L. S. Fignet, cattle buyer for Armour and Company at St. Joseph. The feeder cattle were appraised by Tom McKee and Myron Hunter, commission men from St. Joseph.

Cattle fed by H. A. Smith had made a gain of 2.54 pounds per head daily but weighed 1,224 and were too heavy to suit the packer buyers. They were fed on shock corn and cottonseed cake at a cost of $17.64 per 100 pounds gain after crediting $8.00 per head on hogs. They would have had to sell at $10.10 per cwt., to pay out and were appraised at $9.65.

The 81 two-year-old cattle fed by Giffin and Smith on snapped corn, cottonseed cake and limited amount of alfalfa hay made a daily gain of 2.07 and weighed 1,150. They were appraised at $10.00 and would have had to sell at $9.10 to pay feed cost.

The 47 yearling cattle fed by Shaum and Nicholas on an average daily ration of 16 pounds corn, 2 pounds cottonseed cake and 12 pounds alfalfa hay, gained 2.1 pounds per head daily for 121 days, weighed 1,015 pounds and were appraised at $10.35 with a necessary selling price of $9.63.

The other two bunches were wintered without much gain and in each case showed the advisability of buying feeders in the fall and making use of waste feeds to help carry them through the winter.

Rheumatism

"Yes! it's all gone."

DO NOT close your eyes and think that health, free motion and strength are gone from you forever! It is not so. You can get rid of your rheumatism by building up your blood power. It is a fact that rheumatism means "blood poverty." It is a fact with the increase of red cells in your blood, impurities are destroyed. It is a fact that S.S.S. will help Nature build these red-blood-cells! S.S.S. is one of the most powerful blood cleansers in existence. Its results in thousands of rheumatic cases have been nothing short of amazing! The medicinal ingredients of S.S.S. are purely vegetable. This is very important to remember! What can be more inspiring, more wonderful than to see the shackles of pain released from your struggling body, swellings, lingering pains, stiffness of joints and muscles all disappear; your stomach made strong; your face pink with the old sweetheart glow, your blood enriched and your cheeks more plump as they used to be. You can do it! Take S.S.S., the great destroyer of rheumatic impurities.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

NEWS OF MISSOURI CITIES AND TOWNS

Kirksville, Mo May 27—Friday afternoon Chief of Police Willis received a telephone call from the sheriff of Washington County Iowa, asking him to be on the lookout for a popular make automobile stolen from Brighton, Iowa.

Quick action followed for within an hour later, Willis had found the car and arrested a young man who gave his name as Roy Allen of Van Buren, Ind. The young man was well dressed and seemed plentifully supplied with money. He stated he had been an inmate of a reformatory and was "in bad" any way. Articles found in his possession lead to the belief that they were from a store in Brighton which was burglarized recently.

Allen was turned over to the Iowa sheriff last night.

Jefferson City, Mo. May 27—Three hundred and sixty-eight bids which were received and opened here last Friday will be considered by the State Highway Commission and contracts awarded some time this week. The bids were made on 130 miles of road work on the Missouri Highway system to be constructed in 19 counties at a cost of approximately $2, 500,000.

The work which is scattered throughout the state will include 44 miles of concrete, 53 miles of graveling, 32 miles of grading and 19 small bridges.

Six miles of the work is to be grading from Eugene to Tuscombia in Miller county and 13.6 miles of graveling between Tipton and California.

W. P. Drivers and John Hurley, Fulton contractors had the low bid on the grading project in Boone county. However, it is doubtful whether they will be awarded the job as another bidder submitted a figure which, although slightly higher was made in conjunction with another project and may, perhaps be acceptable to the commission.

At the leting to be held June 5, bids will be received for three concrete projects on Highway No. 2 in Montgomery county. This project totals about ten miles and extends from New Florence to the Warren county line. With the completion of this job there will remain but a small unsurfaced gap in Montgomery county on this highway It is thought by some that this gap will be left unfinished so that a later date the highway may be shanged to run through Mineola.

Miss Halcyon Hooker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Hooker, who has been teaching and taking a post-graduate course in piano at the Nebraska University School of Music in Lincoln, returned home today for the summer vacation.

Missouri Debt Now Is $39,485,000

Additional $7,500,000 of State Road Bonds To Be Sold Next Week.

Jefferson City, June 2.—The outstanding bonded indebtedness of the State of Missouri at this date totals $39,485,000 and an additional $7,500,000 of State road bonds will be sold on June 10, next, according to figures obtained today at the office of the State Treasurer, Eugene F. Stephens.

Twenty-one million dollars of the above total represents bonds that have been sold thus far toward carrying out the State's $60,000,000 highway program, records show, while the remaining $18,485,000 comprise the debt assumed by the State for the payment of bonus claims to Missouri veterans of the World War.

The first issue of the bonus bonds was sold in 1922, when securities aggregating $15,000,000 were placed for maturity in from six to 15 years, drawing interest at 5 per cent. In 1924, an additional $3,600,000 of the bonds was floated, to cover bonus claims which could not be paid out of the first issue, and these securities were negotiated at 4½ per cent, to mature in from one to 20 years, it is shown. The amount outstanding is $3,485,000.

In 1922, State road bonds, Series "A," to the extent of $5,000,000, were sold to mature in from four to five years, bearing interest at 4½ per cent, and is yet outstanding. A second issues, Series "B," of the same amount was released in the same year at the same rate of return, the dates of maturity varying from one to three years. Only $1,000,000 of this amount is now outstanding. Series "X," a third road issue, were sold in 1923 at 4½ per cent and are outstanding at the present time, the dates of their maturity running from five to nine years.

Two more issues of the road bonds, Series "D" and "E," respectively, were issued in 1924, the first being $4,000,000, returnable in from nine to 10 years, and the second for $6,000,000 maturing in from 11 to 13 years and paying 4 per cent.

Series "F" of the road bonds will be sold here June 10, when bids on $7,500,000 will be opened at the Treasurer's office.

Time Saves the Slackers.

Washington, June 2.—In an effort to relieve congested federal court dockets, the department of justice has instructed United States attorneys throughout the country to weed out the hundreds of cases seemingly without merit, involving violation of the war time draft law.

About four thousand cases against draft dodgers have been dropped from the New York court calendar in the last few years, and federal attorneys generally are said to have been instructed to withdraw from court dockets cases which have been pending in some instances eight years, and appear to have no basis for further prosecution.

Chicago Closing Grain Review.

Chicago, June 2.—Trend of values was divided on the Chicago Board of Trade today.

Wheat finished higher, the most strength centering in new crop optimism. Coarse grains were generally lower.

Local bulls supported wheat. Following the opening dip, commission houses absorbed liberal offerings despite improved crop news.

Buying was encouraged by the fact that rains had been confined to the spring belt. Private crop estimates, issued today, were more bullish than the trade anticipated.

Realizing sales in corn were based on liberal receipts and favorable crop news. Cash prices sagged 3 to 5 cents. Despite the drop, bids were not suppressing.

Oats had a heavy undertone with corn. Holders were inclined to take profits.

Fair commission house buying boosted provisions.

Court Hears Many Bridge Complaints

Decides to Keep Road Open—Heaton Ordered to Move Fence—Road Case on June 15.

Harold Heaton has been ordered by the county court to move his fence from the center of the road that abutts the northeast quarter of section 25 in Green township, located about seven miles southwest of Maryville. The court has made an order that this road be opened a half mile north and south and a half mile east and west.

Mr. Heaton will be given some time to move his fence. The township may have a few culverts to fix up on this stretch of road and the county will put in a small bridge. The judges of the county court and Fred Wright, deputy county clerk, viewed the road yesterday which has been closed for some time but without orders from the court.

Yesterday several complaints were heard by the court in regard to bridges that need repairing. The court will act as a board of road supervisors and view the places in question in the near future.

The court was in session today allowing bills and all questions that might come up before it. It will adjourn this evening to meet June 15 for a road hearing.

The court has been notified that a petition will be presented by property owners at Elmo requesting the alleys in blocks 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 in John M. Lamar's addition to Elmo be closed. The court will take action on this matter next month if the petition is presented in due time.

June 25 has been set by the court as the date for letting the contract for cement culvert work and grading a fill on the county line three miles west and two miles south of Skidmore.

The expense of this work will be stood by the county courts of Nodaway and Holt counties.

The county court has issued an order separating the taxes for the years 1920 and 1921 for lots 7, 8 and 9, block 20 in Comstock's addition to Conception Junction. As it was asessed the school taxes for the year 1920 were $35.78 and for 1921 taxes were $34.22.

On a petition of Albert A. Felix, present owner of the land the tax is granted re-apportioned as follows:

For year 1920, lot 7, $11.93; lot 8, $11.92; lot 9, $11.93. For the year 1921, lot 7, $11.41; lot 8, $11.40; and lot 9, $11.41.
